Headline:

Clear spells and isolated showers, and chilly by morning.

This Evening and Tonight:

Isolated showers at first will tend to fade leaving most places dry overnight. Any cloud will break to give some long clear spells, and inland under clear skies it will turn chilly, with a touch of grass frost by morning. Minimum temperature 2 deg C (36 deg F).

Wednesday:

After a chilly start it'll be a bright day with sunny spells. Scattered showers are likely late morning onwards, but not everyone will see them with some places remaining dry. Maximum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:

Largely fine and dry on Thursday and Friday. Generally rather cold by day, with the risk of overnight frost. Cloudy and windy on Saturday with some patchy rain at times.
